

FOUR-NATION SEMINAR

Child protection across the UK: Confidentiality and sexual abuse reporting

 20TH NOVEMBER 2013, EDINBURGH

Agenda

12.00 REGISTRATION AND LUNCH
SEMINAR OPENING

12.50	WELCOME	Introduction and welcome Professor Julie Taylor , NSPCC Professor of Child Protection, Co-Director, University of Edinburgh/NSPCC Child Protection Research Centre
-------	---------	--

13:00	OVERVIEW	Reflections from the new Co-Director Professor Julie Taylor
-------	----------	---

EMERGING DEVELOPMENTS IN CHILD PROTECTION

13.20	NORTHERN IRELAND	Sean Holland , Deputy Secretary, Social Services Policy Group, DHSSPS, Northern Ireland
-------	------------------	--

13.40	ENGLAND	Lisa Harker , NSPCC Head of Strategy and Development
-------	---------	---

14:00	SCOTLAND	Phil Raines , Head of Child Protection and Children's Legislation, Scottish Government
-------	----------	---

14:20	WALES	Nigel Brown , Assistant Chief Inspector, Care and Social Services Inspectorate, Wales
-------	-------	--

14:40		Questions, brief discussion and refreshments
-------	--	--

CONFIDENTIALITY AND SEXUAL ABUSE 'CONFIDENTIAL SPACE'

15:00	SEXUAL ABUSE REPORTING	Jan Pickles (NSPCC Cymru) and Janine Roderick (South Wales Police) Managing Intelligence in a multi agency sexual abuse referral centre
-------	------------------------	--

15:20		Questions and discussion
-------	--	--------------------------

15:30	RESEARCH PRE-LAUNCH	Sarah Nelson (CRFR) and Alison Todd (Children 1ST) Could Scotland's child protection system incorporate a 'Confidential Space' for abused children and young people? If so, what might it look like, which issues would first need to be resolved, and how might the model be piloted?
-------	---------------------	---

16:10		Questions and discussion
-------	--	--------------------------

16:30	PLENARY	Discussion with closing comments from the chair and refreshments
-------	----------------	--

17:00	SEMINAR ENDS
-------	--------------	--
