

Ancient Life Sciences: Aristotelian and Hellenistic Approaches, Part II, 7-8 December 2020 (online).

Organizers: Inna Kupreeva (Edinburgh) and Teun Tieleman (Utrecht)

Monday 7 December

13.45 (= 14.45 Utrecht time)-1400: Welcome.

14.00-14.50: Dr Giouli Korobili (Utrecht): ‘Sustenance and Ecological Thinking in Aristotle’s and Lucretius’ Explanations of Natural Phenomena.’

14.50-15.00: Break I.

15.00-15.50: Richard Schorlemmer (Fribourg): ‘The body as empsychon or organon apsychon: Early Peripatetic difficulties to describe the soul-body relation in voluntary action.’

15.50-16.00: Break II.

16.00-16.50: Dr. Ben Harriman (Edinburgh): ‘Causes and Perceptions: Poseidonius on Parmenides.’

Tuesday, 8 December

9.00-9.50: Chiara Cecconi MA (Utrecht): ‘Herophilus of Chalcedon on Pneuma and the Nervous System: Between Aristotelian Heritage and Novel Discoveries.’

9.50-10.00: Break I.

10.00-10.50: Dr. Aistė Čelkytė (Utrecht), ‘Movers and Shakers: Galen on the nature of demiurgic acts.’

10.50-11.00: Break II.

11.00-11.50: Prof. dr. Teun Tieleman (Utrecht): ‘Galen on the Notion of Life.’

Conclusion.

