

International Workshop – TOPOI Research Group A6 “Economic Spaces”

The Archaeology of Mediterranean Consumption. Distribution of and access to commodities, food and services from the Late Hellenistic to the Late Roman period (II BC-VI AD)

Program

9.30 h - Opening (Prof. M. Meyer – TOPOI-Speaker and Speaker of the Research Group A6)

9.45 h – Introduction (S. Polla)

Urban and Rural Consumption

Moderator: B. Genz

10.00 - 10.30 h - A. Launaro (Cambridge) - Imported vs local? Patterns of distribution and consumption at Interamna Lirenas

10.45 - 11.15 h - A. Roppa (Leicester) - Consumption, trade, and the sociocultural contexts of Roman Republican Sardinia

Coffee Break

Hinterland Connectivity and Consumption

Moderator: A. Launaro

11.45 - 12.15 h - B. Fischer Genz (Beirut) - Becoming Roman in the Northern Beqaa (Lebanon): the evolution of consumption and connectivity in regional centres and their rural hinterland between Heliopolis and Laodicea ad-Libanum

12.30 - 13.00 h - S. Polla (Berlin) - Interpreting microregional distribution and consumption patterns of ceramics commodities in Roman Africa between demography and consumption. The case of the Dougga region

Lunch

Urban contexts and consumption patterns over time

Moderator: A. Roppa

14.30- 15.00 h - G. Pardini/A. Ferrandes (Salerno/Rom) - Consuming within the Urbs. Food, commodities and coins in Rome between 1st c. BCE and 1st c. CE. New data

Foodstuff circulation and consumption

15.15 – 15.45 h - H. Gonzalez (Berlin) - Hispanic foodstuff export from the Roman Imperial Time to Late Antiquity

Coffe Break

Consumption and Consumers: Stone commodities

Moderator: A. Ferrandes

16.15 – 16.45 h - B. Russel (Edinburgh) - mille genera marmorum: stone use and consumer choice in the Roman empire

Concluding Discussion and Publication Issues

19.30 h Workshop Dinner