Participants are invited to read/watch the virtual materials so that the live conference sessions can engage as much as possible in lively conversation. Most presentations will be primarily focused on conversation (Q&A) emerging from presentations already uploaded, though presenters will also provide a summary of their key ideas and arguments. We appreciate everyone's patience in accommodating to this arrangement and look forward to seeing you soon.

There are two Zoom Rooms being used for the conference. One zoom room is for the 2 public lectures (Biesta and Kennedy) – details on the programme below.

All other sessions will use the following zoom details (NB: Please do not share these details with colleagues who have not registered):
